

UH ADVANCED REAL ESTATE LAW COURSE

A PRACTICAL GUIDE TO TITLE POLICY ENDORSEMENTS AND CLOSING ISSUES

The purpose of this article is to guide attorneys through the wondrous maze of procedural rules, rate rules, and the promulgated forms. All of the information about endorsements is found in the Basic Manual of Rules, Rates and Forms for the Writing of Title Insurance in Texas [cite] (the “Basic Manual”).

So, why are the endorsements a maze? The promulgated forms are assigned “T” numbers, the procedural rules that explain the use of the endorsement are found in the “P” section, but the rate rules to charge for the endorsement are found in the “R” section. Unfortunately, the numbers across these sections are not consistent. For example, the environmental endorsement form is found at T-36. But, the rate rule is found at R-11(g). But the Procedural Rule is P-9.b(9).

To make matters more difficult, each endorsement has limitations on its applicability: residential v. commercial and owner’s v. lender’s.

This article will cover endorsements for commercial transactions only. We have prepared a chart of commercial endorsements with the applicable rate rule, procedural rule, and form for easy reference. We have also included a copy of the current promulgated form, the applicable rate rule, and procedural rule.

Note for the endorsement forms attached, some forms have the following signature block, which has been omitted from the forms in this article:

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the _____ Title Insurance Company has caused this Endorsement to be executed by its President under the seal of the Company, but this Endorsement is to be valid only when it bears an authorized countersignature.

AMENDMENT OF EXCEPTION TO AREA AND BOUNDARY

P-2. Amendment of Exception to Area and Boundaries

(a) General Instructions. In either an Owner or Mortgagee Policy, when the Insured desires to have amended the exception as to area and boundaries, (i.e. Item 2 of Schedule B) to delete all save "shortages in area", a title insurance company may accept an existing real property survey and not require a new survey when providing area and boundary coverage if the title insurance company is willing to accept evidence of an existing real property survey, and an affidavit verifying the existing survey, notwithstanding the age of the survey or the identity of the person for whom the survey was prepared. If the transaction involves Residential Real Property, the affidavit verifying the existing survey shall be the Form T-47 Residential Real Property Affidavit. The policy to be issued shall cover the same land as described in the evidence of the existing real property survey. The Company may, if it considers the additional hazard insurable, amend such exception (the Company may waive the requirement of a survey in connection with the issuance of its Mortgagee Policy insuring the lien on a condominium unit), by indicating same in Schedule B of the policy or by endorsement as provided herein upon payment of the premium prescribed in R-16 in the case of an Owner Policy. The survey must be acceptable to the Company.

 - d. "Lease Term": the duration of the Leasehold Estate, including any renewal or extended term if a valid option to renew or extend is contained in the Lease.
 - e. "Personal Property": chattels located on the land and property which, because of their character and manner of affixation to the land, can be severed from the land without causing appreciable damage to themselves or to the land to which they are affixed.

- f. "Remaining Lease Term": the portion of the Lease Term remaining after the insured has been Evicted as a result of a matter covered by this policy.
 - g. "Tenant Leasehold Improvements": Those improvements, including landscaping, required or permitted to be built on the land by the Lease that have been built at the insured's expense or in which the insured has an interest greater than the right to possession during the Lease Term.
2. The provisions of subsection (b) of Section 7 of the Conditions and Stipulations shall not apply to any Leasehold Estate covered by this policy.

3. Valuation of Estate or Interest Insured

If, in computing loss or damage, it becomes necessary to value the estates or interests of the insured as the result of a covered matter that results in an Eviction, then that value shall consist of the value for the Remaining Lease Term of the Leasehold Estate and any Tenant Leasehold Improvements existing on the date of the Eviction. The insured claimant shall have the right to have the Leasehold Estate and the Tenant Leasehold Improvements valued either as a whole or separately. In either event, this determination of value shall take into account rent no longer required to be paid for the Remaining Lease Term.

4. Additional items of loss covered by this endorsement:

If the insured is Evicted, the following items of loss, if applicable, shall be included in computing loss or damage incurred by the insured, but not to the extent that the same are included in the valuation of the estates or interests insured by this policy.

- a. The reasonable cost of removing and relocating any Personal Property that the insured has the right to remove and relocate, situated on the land at the time of Eviction, the cost of transportation of that Personal Property for the initial one hundred miles incurred in connection with the relocation, and the reasonable cost of repairing the Personal Property damaged by reason of the removal and relocation.
- b. Rent or damages for use and occupancy of the land prior to the Eviction which the insured as owner of the Leasehold Estate is obligated to pay to any person having paramount title to that of the lessor in the Lease.
- c. The amount of rent that, by the terms of the Lease, the insured must continue to pay to the lessor after Eviction with respect to the portion of the Leasehold Estate and Tenant Leasehold Improvements from which the insured has been Evicted.
- d. The fair market value, at the time of the Eviction, of the estate or interest of the insured in any lease or sublease made by the insured as lessor of all or part of the Leasehold Estate or the Tenant Leasehold Improvements.

- e. Damages that the insured is obligated to pay to lessees or sublessees on account of the breach of any lease or sublease made by the insured as lessor of all or part of the Leasehold Estate or the Tenant Leasehold Improvements caused by the Eviction
- f. Reasonable costs incurred by the insured to secure a replacement leasehold equivalent to the Leasehold Estate.
- g. If Tenant Leasehold Improvements are not substantially completed at the time of Eviction, the actual cost incurred by the insured, less the salvage value, for the Tenant Leasehold Improvements up to the time of Eviction. Those costs include costs incurred to obtain land use, zoning, building and occupancy permits, architectural and engineering fees, construction management fees, costs of environmental testing and reviews, landscaping costs and fees, costs and interest on loans for the acquisition and construction.

This endorsement is made a part of the policy and is subject to all of the terms and provisions thereof and of any prior endorsements thereto. Except to the extent expressly stated, it neither modifies any of the terms and provisions of the policy and any prior endorsements, nor does it extend the effective date of the policy and any prior endorsements, nor does it increase the face amount thereof.

R-3 a. Leasehold: The amount of the Owner Policy covering a leasehold estate shall, at the option of the Insured, be based upon:

- (1) the total amount of the rentals payable under the lease contract, or
- (2) the value of the land and any existing improvements, or
- (3) the value of the land and any existing improvements and the cost of improvements immediately contemplated to be erected thereupon.

In (3) above, the policy must contain the applicable exception and clause provided for in Rule P-8.

P-8. Issuance of Policies Prior to Completion of Improvements
(a.) Owner Policy
(1) When an Owner Policy is issued in an amount to include the cost of immediately contemplated improvements, the Policy must contain the following exception in Schedule B:

"Any and all liens arising by reason of unpaid bills or claims for work performed or materials furnished in connection with improvements placed, or to be placed, upon the subject land. However, the Company does insure the Insured against loss, if any, sustained by the Insured under this Policy if such liens have been filed with the County Clerk of _____ County, Texas, prior to the date hereof."

AND THE FOLLOWING "LIABILITY" PARAGRAPH:

"Liability hereunder at the date hereof is limited to $_____. Liability shall increase as contemplated improvements are made, so that any loss payable hereunder shall be limited to said sum plus the amount actually expended by the Insured in improvements at the time the loss occurs. Any expenditures made for improvements, subsequent to the date of this policy, will be deemed made as of the date of this policy. In no event shall the liability of the Company hereunder exceed the face amount of this policy. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed as limiting any exception or any printed provision of this policy."

In the event the premium for the Owner Policy is paid in installments pursuant to Rate Rule R-2(b) or (c), the following shall be added to the "Liability" paragraph:

"Notwithstanding the foregoing, liability hereunder shall only increase as down-date endorsements are issued pursuant to expenditures made for improvements and as the corresponding fractional premium for the policy and the full premium for the down-date endorsement are paid."

(2) Upon the completion of the improvements on said property, the owner's acceptance thereof, and satisfactory evidence to the Company that all bills for labor and materials have been paid in full, the "Liability" paragraph and the exception in Schedule B set out in "a(1)" of this rule may be eliminated from the policy by the issuance of the promulgated Endorsement form containing the applicable promulgated language covering said elimination.

In addition to the above elimination, if a satisfactory survey made after the completion of improvements is furnished to the Company, survey coverage may be provided as set out in Rules R-16 and P-2, using the promulgated Endorsement form and containing the applicable promulgated language.

In addition, if the Company's underwriting requirements have been met, the T-19.1 Endorsement may be issued or coverage affirmed as set out in Rules R-29 and P-50, using the promulgated Endorsement form and containing the applicable promulgated language.

1. This policy insures only to, and liability hereunder is thereby limited to, the extent of the amount of proceeds of the loan secured by the lien instrument set forth under Schedule A hereof actually disbursed as of the date of this policy, but increases as each subsequent advance or disbursement of loan proceeds is made and decreases as repayment of all or a portion of the amount of loan proceeds disbursed is made from time to time, so that any loss payable hereunder shall be limited to the aggregate amount of loan proceeds actually disbursed less the aggregate of all repayments thereof existing at the time a loss occurs hereunder; provided, however, that each disbursement of loan proceeds is made in good faith and without knowledge of any defects in, or

In all such cases, the Company must retain and preserve said written instrument. If such inspection is made by the Company, it may charge its reasonable and actual cost therefore. As used herein and in Owner and Mortgagee Policies, the term "Rights of Parties in Possession" shall mean one or more persons who are themselves actually physically occupying the property or a portion thereof under a claim of right adverse to the record owner of the property as shown in Schedule A of the policy. In no event shall the term "Rights of Parties in Possession" include any right, claim or interest which is evidenced by a document recorded in the county where all or part of the property is located.

2. A Company may not prepare and deliver to a proposed insured for review a pro forma policy unless (a) the land is not residential real property and the proposed amount of insurance is $500,000 or more, and (b) each page of the completed Schedules A and B conspicuously states "This is a Pro Forma Policy furnished to or on behalf of the party proposed to be insured for discussion only. It does not reflect the present status of title and is not a commitment to insure the estate or interest as shown herein, nor does it evidence the willingness of the Company to provide any coverage shown herein. Any such commitment must be an express written undertaking issued on the appropriate forms of the Company."
3. A Company may provide a proposed insured with a copy of any promulgated title insurance form, or a foreign language translation of such form. Any translation must conform to the following conditions: (a) the translation must not be misleading, (b) an English copy of the promulgated form also must be furnished, and (c) the translation must include the following conspicuous provision at the top of the first page in both English and the language into which the form has been translated: "This translation of (name of promulgated form) is furnished to you in order to assist you in understanding its terms. This translation is not an official form promulgated by the Texas Department of Insurance. It is not a report or opinion of title, an agreement to insure, or a representation of the insurance you may receive. If this translation conflicts with the form promulgated by the Texas Department of Insurance, the promulgated form will control in all respects."

R-9. Additional Chains of Title. In the event more than one chain of title is involved in the issuance (including determination of insurability of access) of any policy, the Company shall charge the minimum policy Basic Premium Rate for each additional chain. For purpose of applying this rule, contiguous parcels of land in one county shall be treated as one chain, provided record title to the land and record title to the access is vested in one owner at the time application is made. Each noncontiguous parcel having a separate chain shall be treated as a separate chain, except where two or more lots in the same platted subdivision, and having the same plat recording date, belong to the same owner, then such shall be treated as one chain. If the parcels of land lie in more than one county, there are separate chains of title in each county. No additional chain charge may be made for determination of insurability of access to land located within a subdivision, provided: (i) the subdivision is located in only one county, and (ii) the plat of the subdivision has been lawfully approved by an authorized governmental entity, is duly recorded, and the roads shown thereon have been dedicated for public use or for the use of the owners of lots located in the subdivision.
